

Final Project:

1. Create a folder with your LAST name and the word FINAL (ie. Name_FINAL )
2. Create another folder inside this one named Pictures
3. Open your Olympic Tracing Assignment File in Illustrator
4. Draw a box around the Nagano image that you traced
5. Go to the Object menu and select Crop Marks > Make
6. Go to the File menu, select Export, name the new file Nagano and choose tiff format
7. Make the tiff 1200 dpi
8. Save to the Pictures folder
9. Open your Flowers Collage assignment and your Nagano.tif file in Photoshop.
10. Make sure both are CMYK format
11. Resize both images to a maximum height of 5 inches and a maximum width of 4.5 inches at 300 DPI
12. Write down the final size of each image before closing it
13. Make sure both are saved as .tiff format files
14. Using the eyedropper tool, sample one colour from each image and write down the CMYK breakdown
15. Open Quark and create a new file that is Letter Size with a Horizontal orientation
16. Save this document into the main project folder
17. Command – R to bring up the rulers if they are hidden and ‘pull’ a guide from the side ruler to the centre of the document
18. Create an image box on each side of this line that corresponds to the size of your images.

19. The box for Nagano should be on the Left with the box for the Flower Collage on the Right
20. Make a text box above and below each of these image boxes that is 4.5" wide
21. Above all of this make a text box that is centred in the page and below at the bottom make one that is right justified
22. Type Desktop Publishing Assignments in the top Box
23. Type your name in the bottom box
24. Put the words Illustrator and Photoshop in the text box above the appropriate image
25. Colour each word with the sample from the file which you earlier wrote down
26. Under the Nagano image, type the following: The Illustrator assignment was to trace this logo using the Pen Tool, I LOVE the Pen Tool. Wow...Illustrator is terrific!
27. Under the Flower Collage image, type the following: The first Photoshop assignment was to cut these flowers from their original images and paste them into a new document, creating a collage.
28. Make sure to save regularly
